

PFF Fellow Profile

Fellow Name: Richard Dadzie

Degree program / disciplines:

- Interdisciplinary Ph. D. Economics & Geosciences - UMKC
Kansas City, MO

Courses taught:

- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| • Principles of Microeconomics | Instructor |
| • Principles of Macroeconomics | Instructor |
| • Econometrics (graduate-level course) | Teaching Assistant |

Teaching interests:

- Microeconomics
- Macroeconomics
- Urban and Regional Economics
- Economic Development

Research Interests:

- Sustainable development in sub-Saharan Africa
- Urban and regional economic policy issues
- Food policy issues in Africa

Career Aspirations:

I would like to teach at a small or mid-size college or university and continue research in economic development.

PFF Expectations:

My personal expectation is that I become well versed with the various aspects of becoming a good teacher. I will like to improve skills in course planning and evaluation. I would also like to improve my skills with regards to using technology to enhance learning.