

Patrick Dobson
1717 Jarboe St.
Kansas City, MO 64108
816-474-0875
pdt9@umkc.edu

Full résumé: <http://www.patrickdobson.com/resume.htm>

Education

- University of Missouri-Kansas City, 1991
BA History
BA English (Creative Writing/Journalism)
- University of Wyoming
MA History, post-World War II politics, 1993

Present degree program

- University of Missouri-Kansas City
I.Ph.D. History and English
Environmental history of late-19th, early-20th century Missouri River
<http://www.patrickdobson.com/gradstudy.htm>

Courses

Western Civilization I

Introduction to Journalism
<http://www.patrickdobson.com/syllabus.htm>
<http://www.patrickdobson.com/jsched.htm>

Teaching Interests

American Environmental History, American West, World History, American Literature II

Research Interests

Social and environmental history of American riverine systems, social history of rivers as cultural constructs, social history of nature and environment as cultural constructs, literary interpretations of natural world in American literature

Career goal

Tenured professor of history at a four-year college or university

PFF Expectations

To create a research, teaching, administrative (managerial), and academic background useful to prospective colleges and universities and their students, and to develop the skills needed to become the best possible teacher I can be

Cluster Institution Preferences:

1. University of Chicago/MFS
2. University of Kansas
3. Washington University
4. Iowa State University