OUTSTANDING DISSERTATION NOMINATION

Interdisciplinary Ph.D. Discipline or Doctoral Program making this nomination:

Dissertation Title:

Author’s Name, Address & Email:

Name:

Address:

Email:

Adviser’s Name:

Documentation attached to Nomination:

1. A letter of recommendation from the nominee’s research adviser which speaks to at least the following merits of the nominated dissertation:
   • As a work of original research or performance which makes a contribution to existing knowledge in the field or fields.
   • As an educational experience which demonstrates the candidate’s mastery of research methods (performance skills) and tools of the specialized field; and
   • As a demonstration of the student’s ability to address a major intellectual problem and arrive at a successful conclusion.

2. A supporting letter of nomination from program’s dean (DMA, Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology, Ph.D. in Psychology, Ph.D. in Nursing, or Ed.D. doctoral programs) or from the Interdisciplinary discipline coordinator of the Interdisciplinary Ph.D. student's coordinating discipline

3. Final Evaluation Reports may be included if available.

Please do not send copies of the dissertation—we will obtain electronic copies from MOspace.